

HELP THE HUNGRY THIS HALLOWEEN

Did you know that 1 in every 5 New Jersey children is hungry and doesn't know where their next meal will come from?

While nursing a fractured ankle this summer, fifth grader, Margot Kapusinski, came up with the idea of a Halloween food drive to benefit the Community Food Bank of New Jersey.

If you would like to help the hungry residents of New Jersey this Halloween, please bring a nonperishable food item to school by Halloween to be sure it gets to the food bank.

Thank you.

TRICK OR TREAT

Local girl to go door to door collecting food

Cedar Grove resident Margot Kapusinski is accepting food donations this Halloween in an effort to benefit the Community FoodBank of New Jersey.

Margot Kapusinski

A week before the candy-collecting holiday, Kapusinski will distribute an informal flyer and brown paper lunch bags to those in her neighborhood. On Halloween, Kapusinski will come around again, collecting any nonperishable food items left for her.

She is also raising money through a virtual food drive online, and has set a goal of $1,000 by the end of the year.

To donate online, visit cfbnj.org, click "Help" and then "DIY Fundraising."

Once at that page, click "Donate" and under first name search type "Margot."
